

The addresses and papers contained in this section have all been written and presented by members of Southern Division.

For the main part, they are addresses presented by Installing Officers at the installation of new Worshipful Masters. They are intended to be challenging and thought-provoking and to remind the reader of the many wonderful attributes which make Freemasonry so special. We trust that you will find them both interesting and stimulating.